SUBJECT: HEAD OF LIBYAN IMMIGRATION: U.S. BUSINESSMEN ARE WELCOME CLASSIFIED

BY: Gene A. Cretz, Ambassador, U.S. Embassy Tripoli. REASON: 1.4 (b), (d) 1.(C) Summary: In a February 2 meeting with the Ambassador, the director of the U.S. Embassy's visa section, Rammali, who had last met with the Embassy in 2006, commented at the outset of the meeting that it was "highly unusual" for him to meet with the Ambassador. 3.(C) In response to the Ambassador's pressing for an end to the apparent freeze on the issuance of Libyan visas to official USG-related travel, the Ambassador asked Rammali to take steps to resolve the issue. 4.(C) Rammali flagged that National Security Advisor Muatasim al Qadhafi has asked him to be the Libyan signatory on the PISCES agreement, which is currently being negotiated. 5.(C) The Ambassador raised a long-standing ACS case with Rammali, urging that Mohamed Ghenewa, an American-Libyan citizen and LES Embassy employee, be granted a visa to the United States.
